

MAGADH
SUGAR & ENERGY LTD

CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Introduction

This Code of Conduct is made pursuant to Regulation 17(5) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Rules, 2015 and shall hereinafter be known as “the Code”. The Code will become effective from the date it is approved and adopted by the Board of Directors of MAGADH SUGAR & ENERGY LIMITED hereinafter referred to as “the Company”.

The objective of the Code is to promote and uphold the high standards of ethics observed by the Company in conducting its business. The Code lays down a broad policy for one’s conduct in dealing with the Company, fellow directors, senior management and employees and the external environment in which the Company operates.

The Company believes in conducting its business with responsibility, transparency, empowerment, honesty and environmental consciousness. The Company seeks to be a leader in its chosen area of operation and to operate and achieve excellence in everything it does.

All concerned are expected to read and understand the Code, uphold the standards prescribed therein in letter and spirit and to act within the bounds of the authority conferred upon them with duty to make and enact informed decisions and policies which result in enhancement of the value of the Company to its shareholders and simultaneously enable the Company to fulfill its obligations to other stake holders such as customers, employees and financiers and to the society in general.

2. Applicability of the Code

The Code applies to all the members of the Board of Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and to Senior Management Personnel of the Company. Key Managerial Personnel in relation to a Company means the Chief Executive Officer or the Managing Director, the Company Secretary, the Whole-time Director, the Chief Financial Officer, and such other officers as may be prescribed from time to time. Whereas the Senior Management Personnel shall mean the officers and personnel of the listed entity who are members of its core management team, excluding the Board of Directors, and shall also comprise all the members of the management one level below the Chief Executive Officer or Managing Director or Whole Time Director or Manager (including Chief Executive Officer and Manager, in case they are not part of the Board of Directors) and shall specifically include the functional heads, by whatever name called and the Company Secretary and the Chief Financial Officer.

3. Respect for individual

The Company’s vision is based on inspiring and unleashing creative potential in human assets of the Company. This is possible in an environment where we all respect the rights of those around us. In this direction, we endeavor:

- a) To treat individuals in all aspects of employment solely on the basis of ability irrespective of race, caste, creed, religion, age, disability, gender, sexual orientation or marital status.
- b) Not to tolerate racial, sexual or any other kind of harassment.

4. Honest and Ethical Conduct

The Directors, key managerial personnel and senior management personnel are expected to act in accordance with the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty and ethical conduct while working for the Company.

We consider honest conduct to be conduct that is free from any fraud or deception. The ethical conduct is the conduct conforming to the accepted professional standards of conduct. Ethical conduct includes the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships.

5. Conflicts of Interest

Each of us has a responsibility to the Company, its shareholders and towards each other. Although this duty does not prevent us from engaging in personal transactions and investments, it does demand that we avoid situations where conflict of interest might occur or appear to occur.

A “conflict of interest” occurs when an individual’s private interest interferes or appears to interfere with the interests of the Company. The Directors and key managerial personnel or senior management personnel must act at all times in the Company’s best interests and avoid putting themselves in a position where their personal interests conflict or appears to conflict with the interest of the Company. The personal interests will include those of their close relatives. Any Director or key managerial personnel or senior management personnel, who is aware of a conflict of interest or is concerned that a conflict might develop, is required to disclose the matter promptly to the Board of Directors in case of a key managerial personnel or senior management personnel and to the Chairperson in case of Director/s.

The Directors or key managerial personnel or senior management personnel shall not engage in any activity or enter into any relationship which might result in conflict of interest, either directly or indirectly. As an illustration only and not being exhaustive, some of the common instances of conflict of interest which should be avoided are given below:

- a) None shall receive a personal benefit from a person or any entity which is seeking to do business or does business with the Company. They shall not participate in any decision making process of the Board involving another entity/person in which they have direct or indirect interest.
